Official Language

The official language of Alexmun 2023 is English, with the exception of the Spanish language committees, if any delegate is caught speaking any other language in the debate they will be subject to a warning, this includes diplomatic notes and conversation during the unmoderated caucus.

Delegates are allowed to speak any other language during their breaks.

Conduct

- All delegates are requested to maintain a respectful and diplomatic posture, this behavior extends not only to debate sessions but also to breaks and ceremonies.
- The use of offensive comments or acts will have a zero-tolerance policy, resulting in immediate expulsion from the model.
- It is strictly requested to use the selected pronouns of each delegate, if any fault is found in the first incidence, a warning will be given, in the second reoccurrence, it will be used as a reprimand suspension of the debate and as the last instance the expulsion of the model.
- Using the incorrect pronouns accidentally is not the same as purposefully attacking someone's identity. Still, we ask you to do your best in respecting others in order to maintain a diplomatic and respectful environment.
- Violent behavior is unacceptable, this clause covers insults or physical aggression, towards a delegation during the debate.
- All students from Bachillerato Alexander Bain will have further consequences than expulsion and they will be subject to the school's regulations.
- During the sessions, no one is allowed to leave the room unless given explicit permission by the chair. This permission can be asked via diplomatic note.
- Delegates must respect the rules and regulations established by the host school.
- Delegates are expected to follow the protocol that corresponds to their committee.
- It is highly recommended that the delegates attend the trainings that will be given by the chairs of their respective committee.

Dress Code

Professional Business Attire:

- All participants must follow the dress code. If it is broken in one instance, you will be accredited with a warning. If it is broken on a second instance, you will be expelled from the model.
- Delegates and chairs will need to follow the protocol equally.
- All participants should wear a business suit (preferably with a tie) or a skirt/pants-blouse combination.
  - The length of a skirt should be no more than three fingers above the knee.
  - The neckline and back of any blouse should be conservative.
  - Spaghetti straps or strapless shirts are not allowed.
  - See-through blouses or shirts are not allowed.
  - Refrain from using flashy or distracting jewelry.
- We recommend using neutral or dark colors and the use of business shoes, flats or closed high-heels.
- Note that jeans, t-shirts, sneakers, sweatshirts, shorts and non-religious headwear are not permitted in a formal dress code.
- Whilst we want you to be comfortable with what you are wearing, know that the dress code is imposed to create a formal atmosphere. If you have any doubts or concerns please contact us via: alexmun@bab.edu.mx.

Devices

- The use of devices like tablets or laptops is allowed. Delegates may bring up to one of these devices to the debate but they are not allowed to use the internet to look up for information. If the devices are being used for any other purpose, the chair may ask you to stop using your device for the duration of the session or the whole model.
- You may bring pre-loaded articles, documents or any information you may need (related to the model).

- Using cellphones during the debate is prohibited. We recommend you keep your cell phone in silent mode as it can be distracting. If we see your cellphone is being a distraction for you or others, the chairs may take away your cell phone for the duration of the session.
- The delegate is allowed to bring a physical folder with the relevant information, both electronic and physical methods are encouraged.

Position Papers

- The position paper of every delegate must be delivered to the chair in the way and time indicated by the chair. If the delegate does not deliver their position paper, they will not be able to win any prize that may be awarded during the model.

Academics

- It is the delegate's responsibility to maintain their academic performance. Participating in the models does not exempt anyone from properly attending their academic responsibilities.

Warnings

- If a delegate receives a warning, they will not be able to win any prizes awarded during the model.
- If the delegate accumulates two warnings, they will be expelled from the session.
- If three warnings are acquired, the delegate will be expelled from the model and will not be able to participate moving forward.

In case of any questions or extraordinary situations, please feel free to contact the members of the chair in your committee or any of the members from the secretariat.
